

April 13 "Remembrance Day"

Participate in the campaign" we have the right to know"to achieve the rightful demands of the "Committee for the Relatives of Kidnapped and Missing".

Participate in the campaign" we have the right to know" to announce April 13 of each year a "Remembrance Day".

Let it remembered so that it would not be repeated

April 13

April 13 Marks twenty-five years since the Lebanese civil war erupted, a war that pushed the nation backwards, a war from which we continue to suffer its destructive results.

The civil war ended more than a decade ago and yet a large portion of our citizens continue to wait to know about the fate of their beloved kidnapped and missing on lebanese territory. Our government is responsible because these citizens are its children.

This is what the "Committee for the Relatives of the kidnapped and missing" has been demanding on a continuous basis for 17 years.

We have been observing ever since Prime Minister Salim Hoss set up an official investigative committee. We demand and wait for the issuing of the official report.

April 13 of this year and of every year is a “Remembrance Day”

It is day for all society and not a passing occasion, a day at which each lebanese should stop to deduce the necessary morals, a day to denounce violence and prejudice against ourselves and society. We repeat these morals to our children so that they, in turn, repeat it, when it is time, to their children.

This is how civilized people behave: They do not forget but reconcile with their past regardless of how cruel it is.
